America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, whose stern impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat across the wilderness!

O beautiful for patriot's dream that sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam undimmed by human tears!

Chorus:

America, America, God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea.

The Orange and the Black

Although Yale has always favored the violet's dark blue,
And the many sons of Harvard to the crimson rose are true,
We will own the lilies slender, nor honor shall they lack,
While the Tiger stands defender of the Orange and the Black.
We will own the lilies slender, nor honor shall they lack,
While the Tiger stands defender of the Orange and the Black.

Thro' the four long years of high school, midst the scenes we know so well
As the mystic charm to knowledge we vainly seek to spell;
Or, we win athletic vic'tries on the football-field or track,
Still we work for dear old Belding, and the Orange and the Black.
Or, we win athletic vic'tries on the football-field or track,
Still we work for dear old Belding, and the Orange and the Black.

When the cares of life o'er-take us, mingling fast our locks with gray
Should our dearest hopes betray us, false fortune fall away,
Still we'll banish care and sadness as we turn our mem'ries back,
And recall those days of gladness 'neath the Orange and the Black.
Still we'll banish care and sadness as we turn our mem'ries back,
And recall those days of gladness 'neath the Orange and the Black.
